Summary: Dr. Manges is a certified Forensic Psychologist, Court Qualified Expert Vocational Witness, Litigation Consultant, Therapist and Speaker-Trainer. He brings 40+ years of experience as a problem solver to his work. He is recognized by litigators, judges, individuals, corporations and non-profits for his preparedness and his ability to communicate. He is known for his ability to convey complex information in a concise, understandable and memorable way.

Mission: To offer my expertise in resolving problems that recognize my clients' unique situation. My goal is to help others understand the message I have been asked to present; whether in the court as an expert, to an individual struggling with their own personal needs or a group's wanting to communicate with their membership.

My Strengths: The ability to provide a professional and creditable presentation that considers the importance of the message, the circumstances surrounding the topic being presented and the specialty needs of the listener.
